This three-part book is birthed out of different experiences in my life over a number of years. Part I, Confessions of My Life, is a collection of fifteen poems. Part II, Sharing My Thoughts, is a collection of thoughts that the Lord used to personally deliver me during a traumatic situation. Part III, Self-Actualize, is an acronym with bible verses and my thoughts added. From My Heart, placed at the beginning of each section, tells the interesting way in which the Lord inspired me to put all this together.

The Pure Cambridge Edition of the Bible, first published in about the year 1900 by Cambridge University Press and Collins publishers, is also known as the Standard Text. It is the product of textual purification that has occurred since 1611 when the Authorized Version was completed, and it has been used as the received text for many decades; millions of copies were issued by Bible and missionary societies during the twentieth century. This text of this edition stands in contrast to all others (especially newly edited and modernized ones), uses the standard Cambridge spelling, and is scrupulously exact right down to the original italics and punctuation, making it an accurate, reliable, and faithful edition of God's holy word. This casebound edition has been newly designed and typeset using the sturdy Charter typeface, designed by Matthew Carter. Even at the small size required for such a large book, it offers unparalleled clarity and ease in reading. This full-text edition of the Authorized King James Version of the Bible includes both the Old and New Testaments and is printed on acid-free, archival-quality paper. Those who care about accuracy, durability, and presentation will find it ideal for use in church, in ministering, and in personal study.

My first ride on a plane was when I was just a baby a few weeks old. Since that time, I have been fascinated by airplanes. My father would fly to different places for his job, and we had to take him to the airport. While we were living Texas, my grandparents flew in and we picked them up. I always saw airplanes, and I often went to the airport. Oh, how I wished I could fly on a plane. Finally, it came true when we moved back to Texas last year. It was great, so I am writing about it.

The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self.

The King James Version has shaped the church, our worship, and our mother tongue for over 400 years. But what should we do with it today? The KJV beautifully rendered the Scriptures into the language of turn-of-the-seventeenth-century England. Even today the King James is the most widely read Bible in the United States. The rich cadence of its Elizabethan English is recognized even by non-Christians. But English has changed a great deal over the last 400 years?and in subtle ways that very few modern readers will recognize. In Authorized Mark L. Ward, Jr. shows what exclusive readers of the KJV are missing as they read God's word. In their introduction to the King James Bible, the translators tell us that Christians must "heare CHRIST speaking unto them in their mother tongue." In Authorized Mark Ward builds a case for the KJV translators' view that English Bible translations should be readable by what they called "the very vulgar"?and what we would call "the man on the street."

This book was written to help inspire Christians that want to know why things happen to them after they have chosen to live for the Lord. There was a time when I felt loneliness and began seeking a man for companionship because I thought that would settle my dream of a romantic marriage. I finally realized I had made a mistake and stopped and returned to God for His guidance. I realize there are times that will become difficult for Christians to remain faithful to God. I have described some descriptions in my book about temptations that led me astray. I also describe the various ways Christians can remain faithful to Him. One example is the only one that can "fix" us and put us back together "right" is God. God made us in His own image; He is the only one who knows us inside and out. After all, He is the potter and we are the clay. We say we listen to Him, but do we? We should listen to Him with our spirit. We also should not use our talents for our benefit or glory, but for God, church, and others who may be comforted or helped during our ministering of God-given talents.

Since it first appeared in 1917, this edition of the Scofield Study Bible has been regarded by evangelical Christians as a classic work in its field. Its page by page framework of notes, cross-references, subject chain references, definitions, and comprehensive outlines help the reader to explore in depth the passages of Scripture. Now for a new generation of users, Oxford has re-set the Bible using the Authorized King James Version alongside Scofield's complete study notes. This style uses a red-letter text for the New Testament, and in addition to all the normal features of Scofield Bibles, it also incorporates full colour Oxford Bible Maps.

This book is about my personal journey of rediscovering my faith and belief in God, my willingness to let go of all my preconceived ideas about God that was preventing me from fulfilling my destiny, and my willingness to transform my mind to the mind of Christ.

At Peace, No Longer A Slave to Fear, is a fictional novel about how the universal laws of God are always enforced. The novel illustrates the truth that consequences cannot be avoided when Gods laws are violated. The novel emphasizes the need to obey the laws of God, or pay the ultimate price. This action-packed spiritual and inspirational saga gives the reader encouragement that they can also have good success and a life of abundance if they live their life Gods way.

Included in these “pages” are quips and some of mans greatest conundrums explained in plain English. Such as “Man made a monkey out of himself but God did not create him that way.” These short and even the longer combined “Tweets”, sometimes a paragraph, are statements of Gods true Creation science. Having the subject of Creation science understood, and God’s general revelation to mankind through His creation, then one can truly aspire to self help. There are also short stories (very short micro stories even), celebrities of Christianity quoted, and the true historical account of The Holy Bible KJV. I drew upon my learning first under William Massey at Frontenac, whom was more of a hell fire and brimstone preacher which I and we all need to fear The Lord Jesus not just Him as The Savior but to ADMIT to our SIN, CONFESS ALL sin publicly to be held accountable and Jesus forgives past, present, and future so you cannot lose your salvation. If satan reminds you of your past remind him of his future. Then REPENT, turn from sin, run from evil don’t walk so Jesus can FORGIVE and justify you with His finished work on the cross of Calvary for humanity. Afterward, we are sanctified (Luke 2:52) into the fullness of Christ Jesus of Nazareth. Then Malcolm Wild continued the edification work at Calvary Chapel Merritt Island. They both helped me grow as Luke 2:52 says, “And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.” I acknowledge the supreme importance of learning The Word of God The Holy Bible KJV and putting it into practice (James 1:22) because It is inspired, infallible, inerrant, eternal nature and blessing upon mankind as God gave us directions in it’s map of Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth (BIBLE). It is The only Thing we can take with us that will last forever! To those who don’t know The Word of God The Holy Bible KJV I would have to say “Do you own a Bible KJV, read The Bible KJV, study The Bible KJV, and know It, KJV? Is The KJV The ultimate Authority? If not why not? How can you judge something you don’t own, read, study, or understand? What do you really believe and are willing to stake your life upon???”

Looking back over my life, there are so many things I wish I could change. Then again, I dont really know if I would want to change everything. You say double talk, not really. If I changed some things, I would truly miss, I believe, the lessons learned, experiences, and the many blessings I received by doing what God said instead of man. In my seventy-some years of living, Ive had many trials and tribulations, but through it all, I made it by the grace of God. Ive heard that saying many times, but God has let me live long enough to witness that it is a reality. By nature, I wasnt supposed to be here, but because of Gods divine intervention, I am alive and well.

Perfect gift for a new baby, baptism, or dedication. Includes Psalms and Proverbs along with the New Testament.

Christians everywhere are in the darkness of Deism regarding the Bible. Are you one of them? Deism believes God brings forth, then shows indifference toward finishing. This book asks: At what stage did God take His Holy Spirit away from the finishing details of the Bible? Did God gather the books and order them? Divide and number the chapters and verses? Translate a Bible, choosing its words down to the letters? Did God put Jesus' words in red? In this book, by grace through faith, you will be made strong in knowing and understanding the way of the Father in life in the raising of the Bible from the seed Hebrew Old Testament, to the growth of the Greek New Testament, unto the maturity in the English finished and perfected Bible, the King James Bible.

This book is a collection of stories encompassing the ups and downs I have faced in this walk called life. The stories in this book display the steppingstones I have crossed and how God has led me through good, bad, sad and even funny times. He leads me to the next steppingstone I must cross. My Grandfather Reverend Elmer West gave me the gift of Psalm 1 in 1999. Since then I have learned how much grander God's plans are verses my own... I will not wither. Although (because) Christian hymns are typically sung by untrained voices, they exemplify the abiding and universal appeal of human voices joining together in song. This book will be useful and interdenominationally appealing to students and teachers of church music, theological students, pastors, choir members, and worshipers who care about the words they sing.

This book is about Christianity, Islam, Judaism, and how the Arabs and Europeans took these Afrikan Religious Belief Systems from ancient Egypt, North Afrika and used them during The Trans-Sahara Afrikan Slave Trade by the Arabs in the name of Allah, and followed by The Transatlantic Afrikan Slave Trade by the Europeans in the name of Jesus, to enslave the bodies, minds, and souls of the Afrikan Race. This book is about the "Jesus' Deception" that has been passed on down through history by European historians, that is still being taught around the world today. This book takes a provocative intellectual, scholastic, historical, cultural, and sociological look at the Bible. This book identifies the names of the translators of the King James Bible of 1611 A. D., and when the chapters and verses in the Bible were created and who created them. The purpose of this book is to expose the historical, cultural, sociological, religious and theological lies of the Europeans and the Arabs. This book reveals the truth of the origination of The Bible, as “There Is No Religion Higher Than The Truth”. Join me in an intellectual odyssey through time. Here, I feel like a Lone Warrior standing before a mighty army. Come with me on this perilous pilgrimage as we travel through a parallel universe. I dedicate this book to my mother and father who gave me life. To the rest of my Native Afrikan family for supporting me and encouraging me on this publishing venture. To the Heavenly Father, without whom none of this would be possible. There are others I would also like to thank for being a part of helping me through this journey called Life, such as my professors at the Alabama State University where many a great scholars paths I have crossed. To my American family and friends in Mobile, Alabama who nurtured and taught me from childhood to adulthood. The many friends and colleagues I met in my travels all across America in my intellectual journey, and last but certainly not least, to my publisher for granting me the opportunity to speak to many all around the world in this forum. I am eternally indebted to you all-Thank you.

The rehabilitation, by St. Pope Paul VI, of African traditional religions and cultures has made them more objective for theological and anthropological reflection. And the reflecting subject is a native African himself. And the repatriation of missiology into ecclesiology in the Catholic Church in the 21st Century is a new development; and the result if it is what we have before us in this book. Here personal native anthropological and theological experience has combined with in-depth reading of the African novelists’ necessarily biased distillation of African culture has nourished thinking and reflection at a new level in terms of ecclesial implications of living Christianity authentically and being and building the Church in my father’s home.

With clarity and wit, pastor and Bible teacher provides an easy-to-use guide to the Bible, highlighting its origin, history, trustworthiness, and significance as well as key aspects of every book from Genesis to Revelation.

This book is my personal story of how faced with such misfortunes in landing in the hospital with a virus that speedily entered my bloodstream and caused my system to begin to fail me. For a century, gospel music has soothed sorrows, proclaimed joys, preserved stories, and inspired new paths, always reminding listeners that God is the source of our lives and our salvation. This music wove and flowed and coursed through Jackie Freeman’s life even before she was born, thanks to the incredible musician she called Momma. Her earliest memories center on her mother sitting at her upright piano as she played selections from the old Free Will Baptist Hymn Book and the piles of sheet music of gospel songs. That music teaches Scripture, God's deep and abiding love for us all, and a reverence for the awe-inspiring power and beauty of classic Christian songs. Keep a Song in Your Heart is a legacy project that explores the wisdom Southern gospel masterpieces and their performers impart. In these devotions, the author shares how America's greatest gospel songs inspired her family and her life—and, she hopes, they will enrich and inspire your life. Thanks to modern technology, she shares the music with you via Spotify, a free computer app. During difficult times in our lives and in the world, this devotional offers strong messages of hope, destiny, and salvation.

The 15 books of the Apocrypha have always been included in the Holy Bible placed between the Old and New Testament. It was in Luther's Bible of 1534 that the Apocrypha was first published as a separate inter-testamental section. The Apocrypha was part of the original 1611 King James Bible. It was later removed in 1885 A.D. The word 'Apocrypha' literally means 'hidden'. Fragments of Dead Sea Scrolls dating back to before 70 A.D. contained parts of the apocrypha books in Hebrew, including Sirach and Tobit. Many argue the Apocrypha should never have been removed reciting Revelation 22:19 which warns "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life"

I was inspired to write this book by God, and these prayers are up close and personal with him. I was diagnosed with relapsing-remitting multiple sclerosis on May 18, 1999 at the age of twenty-nine, and through my struggle, I found myself in a relationship with him who knew and loved me before he put me in time. This book has various names of the Most High God, prayers of thanksgiving, and personal descriptions of who he is in times of trouble. There are Bible scriptures that follow each prayer and relates to them. God wants us to seek him first. (Refer to Psalm 88:13 and Matthew 6:33.) We should always begin our day in communication with God. (Refer to Psalm 63:1.) Let your words set or change the atmosphere around you! Enjoy your secret place with God!

I am truly blessed and honored that my God breathed on me, that my Christ Jesus spoke through me, that my Holy Spirit inspired me, and that I was chosen by the Trinity to be their disciple to write, My God Favored Me with My Twelve-Step Recovery Wishes. However, I boast not in myself but entirely in my Heavenly Father, in my Christ Jesus, and in my Holy Spirit, who all favored me and will favor you also if you will allow yourself to be their servant. I am a born-again Christian, and I thank my Heavenly Father for never giving up on me when I was living in the world because the lifestyle I was living could have killed me, but my God had other plans for my life. Thank you Heavenly Father for your unconditional love for me, for never giving up on me, and for giving me a second chance in life.

I invite you to come with me on a journey—a journey through life. In your passage through life, you want to be fully in charge of the route, the events, and the destination. As we travel, you need a clear view of where you have come from, where we are today and where you will be going. I believe I have a sincere story to present to you, my life as a Jehovah's Witness: "Used Abused and Forgotten." In my story there are many events that have adversely affected me as I grew up. I speak of the wrongs I have suffered, and of those who inflicted them; the memories of painful experiences and harmful early influences and unpleasant past events. Together we will consider the importance of what happens when one's life is decimated by control in the name of religion.
